No joke. I was already making money from Ultima, so must have been fall of 1980. My father was also an Apollo astronaut, so Buzz was/is a family friend. Many astros leaving NASA to try commercial seeking investors sought me out, as I was the neighborhood entrepreneurial success.

Is this a joke that went over my head or is the year a typo? Why would Buzz Aldrin pitch to you in 1979? Or were you famous for something at the time before the games?

I believe your father was a Skylab and Shuttle era astronaut not Apollo..? He didn't fly until the year after Apollo was cancelled..?

Owen was a CAPCOM for Apollo 11. Not only did he know Buzz well, he's one of a handful of people who talked to him on the moon.
